Figure B6. Schematic representation of extrusion.
A custom 2D outline on a plane is offset in the plane-normal direction by a particular amount d. The area between the original and offset shape is the extrusion volume, i.e. the ROI.